

Hey there! I'm Lizzie Smiley.

I'm a pursuer of peace, wife, mom, lover of Jesus, artist, and knitter.

I would absolutely love to connect with you. On my website, CreateAPeacefulHome.com, I blog about faith, family, marriage, and womanhood. It's also the hub of my reclaimed wood sign shop which I run with my husband while raising our daughter from home. ❤️

HEALING FOR THE HEARTENHEADED

Lizzie has an intuitive business savvy. She is able to quickly assess a brand's specific needs in marketing and growth and partner in a win-win effort to build that brand's visibility. Lizzie's ability to see the bigger picture gives her vision and creative problem-solving while collaborating. Her ability and willingness to articulate ideas elicits a confidence and trust from those in management that is rarely realized with others due to her unique talents and skill set. I wholeheartedly recommend Lizzie to those who want to take their vision and company to a whole new level because that's what she did for us.
